

Leave Policy

NovaTech Solutions Pvt. Ltd.

Policy Document Code: NTS-HR-002

Internal Company Policy

This document contains fictional policy information created specifically for an academic Enterprise RAG project. It does not represent a real company's policy.

1. Purpose and Scope

The Leave Policy defines the leave categories available to eligible NovaTech employees and explains entitlement, application, approval, carry-forward, and documentation requirements.

This policy applies to regular employees unless a separate employment agreement or applicable law provides a different entitlement.

2. Casual Leave

Employees are entitled to 12 days of Casual Leave per calendar year. Casual Leave is intended for short-duration personal requirements, unexpected personal matters, and other reasonable short-term absences.

Casual Leave is allocated on an annual basis and is subject to the employee's applicable eligibility and approval requirements.

- Annual entitlement: 12 days.
- Casual Leave is not carried forward to the next calendar year.
- Planned Casual Leave should normally be requested at least two days in advance.
- Leave approval remains subject to operational requirements.

3. Earned Leave

Eligible employees receive 15 days of Earned Leave per year. Earned Leave is generally intended for planned personal time, vacations, or extended periods away from work.

Unused Earned Leave may be carried forward subject to the maximum accumulation limit defined in this policy.

- Annual entitlement: 15 days.
- Earned Leave can be carried forward.
- Maximum carry-forward balance: 30 days.
- Employees should plan extended leave in consultation with their manager.

4. Sick Leave

Employees are entitled to 7 days of Sick Leave per year. Sick Leave is intended for illness, medical treatment, recovery, or related health needs.

A medical certificate is required when an employee takes more than three consecutive days of Sick Leave.

- Annual entitlement: 7 days.
- Medical certificate required beyond three consecutive days.
- Employees should notify their manager as soon as reasonably possible.

5. Maternity and Paternity Leave

Eligible employees may receive Maternity Leave of 26 weeks in accordance with applicable Indian maternity legislation and company procedures.

Eligible employees may receive Paternity Leave of 5 working days. Employees should coordinate leave dates with HR and their manager.

- Maternity Leave: 26 weeks for eligible employees.
- Paternity Leave: 5 working days.
- Supporting documentation may be required by HR.

6. Leave Application Procedure

Planned leave must normally be submitted through the HRMS portal at least two days in advance. The employee should select the appropriate leave category and provide accurate dates and supporting information when required.

Emergency leave should be communicated to the manager as soon as possible and subsequently recorded in the HRMS system.

- Submit planned leave through HRMS.
- Provide accurate leave dates.
- Obtain manager approval where required.
- Provide medical documentation when applicable.

7. Leave Encashment

Earned Leave encashment may be permitted according to the company's applicable HR procedures and eligibility rules. Casual Leave and Sick Leave are not intended for routine encashment.

Employees should contact HR for the applicable encashment process and eligibility requirements.

8. Carry-Forward Rules

Casual Leave cannot be carried forward from one calendar year to the next. Unused Casual Leave expires at the end of the calendar year.

Earned Leave can be carried forward, subject to the maximum accumulation limit of 30 days. Employees should monitor their leave balance through HRMS.

- Casual Leave carry-forward: Not permitted.
- Earned Leave carry-forward: Permitted.
- Maximum Earned Leave balance through carry-forward: 30 days.
