

Travel Policy

NovaTech Solutions Pvt. Ltd.

Policy Document Code: NTS-FIN-001

Internal Company Policy

This document contains fictional policy information created specifically for an academic Enterprise RAG project. It does not represent a real company's policy.

1. Purpose and Scope

The Travel Policy defines requirements for employees travelling on approved company business. It covers domestic and international travel, accommodation, food allowance, transportation, booking, receipts, and reimbursement.

Only reasonable and business-related expenses incurred during approved travel are eligible for reimbursement.

2. Domestic Travel

Domestic business travel within India must be approved through the appropriate company process before travel. Employees should use reasonable and cost-effective travel arrangements consistent with their role and assignment.

Travel expenses should be documented and submitted through the reimbursement process after the trip.

- Obtain approval before travel.
- Use approved booking channels where applicable.
- Maintain required receipts.
- Submit reimbursement within the specified deadline.

3. Accommodation Reimbursement

For approved domestic business travel, the hotel reimbursement limit is ₹5,000 per night for Tier-1 cities and ₹3,500 per night for Tier-2 cities.

Employees should select accommodation that is appropriate for the business purpose and within the applicable reimbursement limit.

- Tier-1 cities: ₹5,000 per night.
- Tier-2 cities: ₹3,500 per night.
- Original receipts must be retained and submitted where required.
- Expenses above the applicable limit require prior exception approval.

4. Food and Daily Allowance

The standard domestic daily food allowance is ₹1,000 per day for eligible business travel. The allowance is intended to cover reasonable food expenses during approved travel.

Employees should not claim the same expense twice through both the daily allowance and individual reimbursement unless explicitly permitted.

5. Air Travel Eligibility

Manager-level employees and above may use air travel for domestic distances exceeding 500 kilometres, subject to business approval and available booking rules.

Other employees should follow the applicable travel class and transportation rules communicated during travel approval.

6. Local Transportation

Local cab expenses incurred for approved business travel may be reimbursed at actuals up to ₹800 per day. Employees should use reasonable transportation and retain supporting receipts.

Personal transportation expenses that are unrelated to company business are not reimbursable.

7. International Travel

Approved international business travel may include an international per diem of USD 75 per day, subject to employee eligibility and travel approval.

International travel must be approved before booking and should comply with the company's immigration, security, and expense requirements.

8. Reimbursement and Receipt Requirements

Travel reimbursement claims must be submitted within seven working days of returning from the business trip. Claims should include the required receipts, travel dates, business purpose, and approval information.

Claims without required documentation may be delayed or rejected until the missing information is provided.

- Submit claims within 7 working days of return.
- Attach required receipts.
- Include the business purpose.
- Ensure the claim matches the approved travel.